Have your say

Help us to make health and social care services in Wales better

Introduction

We are Llais, an independent body set up by the Welsh Government.

We are here to help people have more say in how health and social care services are planned and delivered.

You can find out more about what we do on our website here.

We want to talk to people across Wales to help us decide what our plans and goals should be.

We want to know how you think we should carry out our work.

We want to hear what matters most to you about health and social care services.

This will help us make sure our work makes a big difference.

We will make sure decision makers use your views to make health and social care services better.

How to give us your views

We want you to tell us how you think we should carry out our work and what matters most to you about health and social care services.

To give us your views, you can join our online event, fill out our survey, or talk to us. Your friends and family can join in too.

1. Join our online event:

Book your place here.

2. Fill out our survey:

Answer our questions on your own or in a group. Find the survey here.

Talk to us:

Email us on enquiries@llaiscymru.org.

We will reply to arrange a time and date which suits you.

We can also join an online meeting of your team or community.

We will be collecting your views until 31 July 2023.

Your ideas will help us plan for the future.

Thank you for helping us.
